

Although the Manheim Planning Board has not yet been served and neither the Notice of Petition nor the Petition request preliminary injunctive relief, it seems appropriate that the ZBA should not go forward with the public hearing on the Four Branch Farm LLC's application for a special use permit previously scheduled for tomorrow night (July 28, 2026) until the issues raised in the Article 78 proceeding are addressed by the Court.